Expressing Condolences Is a Courtesy and A Duty (by Shaykh 'Abdul Fattah Abu Ghuddah (r))

You may console non-Muslims on mourning using appropriate expressions. Imam Al-Qadi Abu Yusuf (r) said, in the end of his book Al-Kharaj, that he asked Abu Hanifa (r) about how to console a Jew or a Christian who lost a child or relative. Abu Hanifa (r) said to say 'Allah decreed death for all His creations. We ask Allah to make death the best fate to wait for. We all belong to Allah and to Him we all shall return. Be patient and endure this calamity.

Abu Yusuf (r) said we learned that a Christian who used to attend the lectures of Al-Hasan Al-Basri (r) died. Al-Hasan went to console his brother. He said: May Allah reward you for this calamity as He reward your fellows. May Allah bless our death and make it the best fate to wait for. Be patient against the misfortunes. You may say these kind words and remind them of death as the inescapable fate with which we can do nothing about but acceptance and patience.

Imam Ibn A'bdin (r) in his book Rad Al-Muhtar that the Shaf'ee said: You may console Muslims when at the death of a non-Muslim relative. On such occasion you may say: May Allah increase your rewards and patience. You may console non-Muslims on the loss of a Muslim relative. On such occasions you may say: May Allah forgive your deceased and give best condolence.
